1 Fairbanks

Welcome to Fairbanks and Alaska's Golden Heart City, located in the center of Alaska. After a warm welcome from the team at John Hall's Alaska, transfer to the Bear Lodge, the hotel accommodations for the next two evenings.

Dinner

Overnight: Bear Lodge

2 Fairbanks

Begin the day with a Welcome Breakfast with fellow traveling companions, followed by the historic Riverboat Discovery cruising the Chena River. Visit Trail Breaker Kennel - home to the late four-time Iditarod Champion Susan Butcher - for an exclusive look at the Iditarod mushing lifestyle and what it takes to be successful. Enjoy plenty of time to see the puppies! Stop at Fountainhead Antique Auto Museum before an evening at the Alaska Salmon Bake and Palace Theatre.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

3 Denali National Park

After breakfast at a Fairbanks favorite, board the luxury motorcoach to travel to Denali National Park. Spend time at the Denali Visitor Center before traveling 42 miles into one of Alaska's highlights, Denali National Park. Dinner this evening is at guests' leisure.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Overnight: Denali Bluffs Hotel

4 "Pick Your Adventure" & Anchorage

Spend the morning with a "Pick Your Adventure" activity to enhance your time in Denali National Park, choosing between rafting, ATV, Zipline or a helicopter experience. Following lunch, travel to Anchorage via motorcoach for an evening at the historic downtown Hotel Captain Cook.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Overnight: Hotel Captain Cook

5 Kenai Peninsula & Seward

Early this morning, depart for the Anchorage train depot for what is considered to be the most beautiful train ride in Alaska. Witness Cook Inlet and Turnagain Arm from the Alaska Railroad GoldStar glass-domed car on a 4.5-hour journey to Seward. Join a vessel for a 6-hour cruise through Kenai Fjords National Park, keeping an eye open for a variety of wildlife. After a busy day, retire to the Seward Windsong Lodge with dinner at leisure.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Overnight: Seward Windsong Lodge

6 Anchorage

Relax this morning enjoying the serenity of the property before starting the journey back to Anchorage. En route, stop at the Alaska Wildlife Conservation Center. Travel over 2300 feet vertically on the Alyeska Aerial Tram and enjoy lunch overlooking Turnagain Arm before returning to Anchorage for one more evening.
